The admission and equivalence committees allow students to join ESAPB throughout the course of the curriculum.

Candidates are invited to an online interview with a jury made up of the school's director or their representative and teaching staff, during which they present their portfolio.

The admission level is confirmed by the committee after examining the applications through an interview by videoconference and upon submission of a portfolio of personal work.

Final admission is subject to the committee's approval, provided that the necessary credits have been obtained and/or the candidate has passed the examinations. Only candidates who have obtained the necessary credits and diplomas for the level of admission will be able to enrol permanently at the School.
